4. APPLICATION OF THE PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy applies to personal information that we have in our possession or under our control and personal information that we collect or receive from or about you. It stipulates, amongst others, how we collect the information, the type of information collected, why that information is collected, the circumstances under which that information will be shared with others, the security measures that we have implemented to protect the information and how you may obtain access to and correct your information.

5. OUR COMMITMENT

We understand that your personal information is important to you and that you may be anxious about disclosing it. Your privacy and the security of your information are just as important to us and we want to make sure you understand how your information will be processed. We are committed to conducting our practice in accordance with the law. We will, therefore, only process, which includes collect, use, store or disclose, your personal information in accordance with the law or otherwise with your consent and will always strive to keep your information confidential. We take this commitment to look after your personal information seriously. We have implemented a number of processes to make sure that your personal information is used in the right way.

We apply the following principles in order to protect your privacy:

- We only collect the personal information that is necessary;
- We only use personal information for the purposes specified in this Privacy Policy, unless you are advised otherwise;
- We do not keep personal information longer than needed for lawful purposes; and
- We only share your personal information as specified in this Privacy Policy and permitted in terms of the law or otherwise as agreed with you.

6. WHEN YOU PROVIDE INFORMATION ABOUT ANOTHER INDIVIDUAL / ENTITY

You must make sure that if you provide personal information about any individual or entity to us, you may lawfully do so (e.g., with their consent). We will accept that you are acting lawfully. You should make sure that they are familiar with this Privacy Policy and understand how we will use and disclose their information.

7. COLLECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect personal information directly from you when you become a patient or an employee of the practice, when you supply information on our website or when you provide information to us. Information may also be collected from other sources, depending on the circumstances, when it is, for example, not possible to obtain the information directly from you or to protect your legitimate interests such as ensuring your safety during a medical procedure. The information may be collected from persons, such as your next-of-kin, another health care practitioner involved with your care or when you make information publicly available. The information that we collect about patients is necessary to ensure their safety during procedures and to provide them with the requested medical services.

8. PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

There are various laws that permit the processing of personal information of patients such as the National Health Act, POPIA and the Medical Schemes Act. Employment laws permit the processing of employees' information.
